

Reunion the southernmost department of France just 800km east of Madagascar is one of the world's last remaining colonial possessions. With Mauritius and Seychelles as its neighbours, Reunion is an enchanting small island with mountains dominating the island and rainforests along the sandy coast.

Reunion was once a vast volcano which collapsed to leave a pointedly jagged interior. Inland lie three cirques, Mafate and Salazie which are inaccessible and can only be seen by hikers or by helicopter. The third cirque, Cilaos has a small town and can be accessed by vehicle.

Although the island has the reputation as a nature destination the island does offer a number of beach resorts. Reunion combines perfectly with Mauritius, Madagascar or Seychelles for the ideal Indian Ocean Island holiday.
